

DO YOU REMEMBER 'OLD FLO'?

Photograph: Henry Moore's 'Draped Seated Woman', Stifford Estate, 1962. LCC Photograph Collection, courtesy London Metropolitan Archives, City of London.

Henry Moore's Draped Seated Woman was affectionately nicknamed 'Old Flo' by residents of the Stifford Estate in Stepney, where she reclined from 1962-97. She returns to the East End this autumn after 20 years in the green pastures of Yorkshire Sculpture Park.

Do you remember Old Flo? Did you used to live on the Stifford Estate? Do you have memories of growing up under her gaze? We would love to hear from you and share your stories to help welcome her back.

There will be a programme of celebration, education and community events while Old Flo is in her new home at Canary Wharf, if you would like to receive updates and become a 'Friend of Old Flo' please contact us at:

oldflo@canarywharf.com or 020 7418 2346

#oldflo @yourcanarywharf @canarywharflondon