

Bloom

August
2018

Performance Space

Crossrail Place Roof Garden
Canary Wharf, E14 5AR

Providing a space for original,
alternative, community arts.
Join our FREE summer
programme of festivals,
performance and music.

CANARY WHARF
LONDON

Working in conjunction with

August Highlights

---

Bury the Hatchet

Age 14+

Thursday 16 August, 7pm

Andrew Borden and his wife Abby are found dead in Fall River, Massachusetts. Their daughter Lizzie is the main suspect. The story goes, she wielded the axe that killed them. Bury The Hatchet is a true crime podcast meets bluegrass musical and a feminist revision of the Lizzie Borden story.

---

Ruby Redfort

Age 7+

Saturday 18 August, 2pm

When the world's greatest criminal masterminds target a supernatural statue, it's up to us and Ruby – maths genius, special agent and 13-year-old girl – to crack the case. This quirky, hilarious spy thriller takes the audience on an adventure full of ingenious gadgets, hair-raising stunts and death-defying maths in a race to prove that being a spy is actually child's play.

---

Late Bloom Festival

All ages

Thursday 23 – Sunday 26 August, various times

Join us at the Late Bloom Festival and make the most of summer with theatre, comedy, music and family friendly entertainment! For the fourth year, we are returning to the beautiful Crossrail Place Roof Garden in Canary Wharf offering another fantastic opportunity for local artists to showcase their talent, bringing you the best of what Tower Hamlets has to offer.

TOWER HAMLETS

Kindly supported by London Borough of Tower Hamlets

For further information,
full listings or to book
please visit space.org.uk

canarywharf.com
@yourcanarywharf
@canarywharflondon