September Highlights

The Life and Times of Old Flo

All ages

Thursday 30 August – Sunday 2 September, 7pm

1940: A mother and son shelter from bombs in East London

1962: Regulars of The Old Red Lion celebrate a Friday night

1997: A removal van leaves a care home in Wapping

2012: A piece of treasured public art is saved from sale

This is the story of 'Old Flo', a new play by Tim Blackwell. WorkSpace Productions tell the story behind Henry Moore's famous sculpture 'Draped Seated Woman', tracing its journey from the Stifford Estate, Stepney to Canary Wharf today.

Wild Wilma

Age 4+

Saturday 8 September, 2pm

(pre-performance workshop, 1pm)

Wild Wilma tells the story of a young girl who is sold to the circus. Wilma struggles to fit in and meet the strict expectations of the circus mistress. On a quest to find her identity, Wilma finds the courage and bravery to be wild and free through the friendship of others. A wonderfully wild new family show written by children's author, Rachel Lyon (I Wish I'd Been Born A Unicorn for CBeebies), told through physical storytelling, puppetry and an original soundtrack.

The Penguin & I

All ages

Thursday 13 September, 7pm

What have you lost down the back of your sofa? Change? Keys? A memory? This immersive performance follows a man on the evening of the night before. He finds more down the back of his couch than you would ever expect, including an obnoxious penguin. Connection, trust and courage collide in Living Room Circus' latest show. Living Room Circus create intimate and immersive shows, blending a mix of high level circus with physical theatre, dance and live music.
