

Take a look!

The Docklands is a fascinating place and has been for centuries!

It's all light

Every January, Canary Wharf hosts an event called Winter Lights, full of art that uses lights. Which switch needs to be turned on to start the festival?

WINTER LIGHTS

Testing times

Canary Wharf and the docks have an incredible history. Take this quiz to see if you're a history whizz!

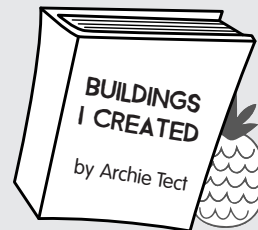

- This frightening tool (right) is called a docker's hook. What was it used for?
  - Scaring off gangs of river pirates who stole goods at night
  - Catching rats that ate precious food kept in warehouses
  - Moving sacks of goods by jabbing the sharp end into the sack and lifting.
- During World War Two, German airplanes bombed London but especially the Docklands. The bombing was known as:
  - The Ritz
  - The Blitz
  - The Pitz.
- The DLR train line was opened by Queen Elizabeth II in 1987. It was the first British railway to:
  - Be run by computer, with no driver
  - Run on electricity, not steam
  - Have automatic doors without handles.
- The windows on One Canada Square tower are cleaned once a month. How many are there?
  - 396
  - 3960
  - 39,600

West India Docks was famous for importing exotic Caribbean fruits, such as pineapples. How many pineapples can you find hidden on the page?

Art to art

There are over 70 public art works on the Canary Wharf estate and many are world-famous. Anyone can visit for free!

International greetings!

More than 90 different languages are used in Tower Hamlets, the borough where Canary Wharf is located. Below are some of them. Can you match the word for "Hello" to the language?

- Chinese
  - French
  - Italian
  - Polish
  - Somali
  - Spanish
- a SALAAN
 b CIAO
 c HOLA
 d BONJOUR
 e NI HAO
 f WITAJ

Library of laughs

Check out these crazy books!

