BANK STREET BASKETBALL

BE THE BEST YOU CAN BE

BY YINKA ILORI

DAILY UNTIL OCTOBER
BANK STREET PARK
12 – 9PM
FREE

Fusing his British and Nigerian heritage artist Yinka Ilori has transformed Bank Street Park with a colourful 3x3 basketball court unique to Canary Wharf. The theme of the court is 'be the best you can be', creating a space to encourage and inspire. Echoing the court design, his vibrant artwork also features on the surrounding park walls.

The basketball court is free to use and staffed daily between 12–6pm, our stewards will be able to provide players with basketballs. Players are welcome to use the court outside of these times 6–9pm with their own equipment. We will be operating a first come, first served policy.

Later this summer the charity my AFK will be taking over the court for shoot the hoop challenges, elite showcases, and a championship tournament.

Head to canarywharf.com for more info.

SUN PAVILION

BY MORAG MYERSCOUGH

DAILY UNTIL OCTOBER
MONTGOMERY SQUARE
FREE

Morag Myerscough has transformed Montgomery Square with her signature use of shape, colour and pattern. This bright and inviting pavilion is the perfect space to sit and have your lunch, safely meet with friends or listen to music. Much like the sun, the pavilion aims to radiate energy and bring joy. The structure sits alongside but in contrast to the surrounding glass high-rise buildings synonymous with Canary Wharf. This intimate, compact and intensely coloured seating area aims to be inviting for all.

OUTDOOR THEATRE

MONDAYS UNTIL 26 JULY
WESTFERRY CIRCUS
7PM
FREE

The magical Westferry Circus welcomes you into new and wonderful theatrical worlds every Monday in July to enjoy some amazing al-fresco theatrical productions.

Enjoy performances of classic plays from Shakespeare, Bronte, Wilde and Gilbert & Sullivan performed by four fantastic theatre troupes. Each performance begins at 7pm and is welcome to one and all.

Bring along your picnic and settle in for some outdoor theatre as dusk falls on Canary Wharf.

GREENHOUSE THEATRE

FRI 23 JULY – SUN 15 AUGUST

PERFORMANCES & WORKSHOP TIMES VARY
JUBILEE PARK

TICKETED / FREE (DONATIONS OPTIONAL)

This summer Canary Wharf is welcoming the UK's first zero waste performance space to Jubilee Park.

Through the power of art and storytelling, The Greenhouse Theatre encourages people to realise the impact they can have on the course of the climate crisis. This award-winning venue will be built on site made entirely from found and recycled materials. Once built this unique pop up venue will host a programme of shows and workshops, designed to help audiences build deeply personal connections with the climate crisis, while giving them the practical skills they need to convert interest to action.

From theatre to family events, talks to practical workshops, there will be something to spark your imagination.

Go to thegreenhousetheatre.com for full programme listing and to reserve tickets.

LOOKING UP HELAINE BLUMENFELD PUBLIC ART

DAILY UNTIL TUE 30 NOVEMBER
THROUGHOUT CANARY WHARF

Visit this stunning outdoor exhibition by renowned artist Helaine Blumenfeld OBE.

As well as being her largest solo exhibition to date, this is also an unrivalled opportunity to view Blumenfeld's work in the context of hard interior and exterior architecture. Her fusion of natural forms, both human and foliate, spiced with abstraction, are seen through a range of diverse works dating from 1974 to 2019.

Blumenfeld works in a range of media – marble from many locations in Europe and the Middle East, terracotta, wood and bronze, all of which she pushes to the limits of risk, teetering on the edge of impossibility, particularly in her carving.

SUMMER LIGHTS

A colourful exhibition celebrating natural light throughout Canary Wharf.

Summer Lights features eleven exciting new artworks that shimmer and shine in natural light. This unique exhibition launched on Midsummer, with a selection of stunning artworks are all enhanced by the sun's rays.

Unlike the always popular Winter Lights, this exhibition is designed to be enjoyed during the day.

The exhibition is open daily to be viewed from sunrise to sunset. The installations will be at their most impressive while the sun is shining.

DAILY UNTIL SAT 21 AUGUST
SUNRISE – SUNSET
