Open house Families at Canary Wharf will include an exciting programme of activities for children and their families, targeted at children aged 0-13 years of all abilities. Across the day you will be able to enjoy a packed programme of family events including storytelling, Lego challenges and construction activities led by architects, designers and engineers. It's a hands-on and creative experience for children to explore architecture and the city around them through play.

PAINT JAM WITH OLD FLO

Join us for a free Henry Moore inspired painting workshop with Paint Jam London. Henry Moore's Draped Seated Woman sculpture at Cabot Square will be the life model of the day.

Paint Jam is London's original paint party - a quirky event in our unique pop-up art studio. A critically acclaimed social painting workshop for everyone run by fab London artists. Make art inspired by Draped Seated Woman, also known as Old Flo. Start with a warmup exercise with chalks and pastels on paper, then paint your own canvas with acrylic paints. Get creative and go home with an original artwork.

Booking information

These workshops are free to attend, but please email us at OldFlo@canarywharf.com to reserve your place or if you have any questions. When making your booking, please provide full names of all attendees (up to 3 people per booking), and your preferred time.

SUN PAVILION BY MORAG MYERSCOUGH

DAILY UNTIL OCTOBER
MONTGOMERY SQUARE
FREE

Morag Myerscough has transformed Montgomery Square with her signature use of shape, colour and pattern. This bright and inviting pavilion is the perfect space to sit and have your lunch or safely meet with friends. Look out for our Sunny Day Sessions every Thursday, transforming the pavilion into a stage for live music.

Much like the sun, the pavilion aims to radiate energy and bring joy. The structure sits alongside but in contrast to the surrounding glass high-rise buildings synonymous with Canary Wharf. This intimate, compact and intensely coloured seating area aims to be inviting for all.

BANK STREET BASKETBALL BE THE BEST YOU CAN BE BY YINKA ILORI

DAILY UNTIL OCTOBER
BANK STREET PARK
12 - 9PM
FREE

Fusing his British and Nigerian heritage artist Yinka Ilori has transformed Bank Street Park with a colourful 3x3 basketball court unique to Canary Wharf. The theme of the court is 'be the best you can be', creating a space to encourage and inspire. Echoing the court design, his vibrant artwork also features on the surrounding park walls.

The basketball court is free to use and staffed daily between 12-6pm, our stewards will be able to provide players with basketballs. Players are welcome to use the court outside of these times 6-9pm with their own equipment. We will be operating a first come, first served policy.

PING PONG

DAILY UNTIL OCTOBER

CABOT SQUARE &
BANK STREET PARK

12 – 6PM

FREE

Get your bats at the ready because Ping Pong is here at Canary Wharf!

You will find two tables at Cabot Square, designed by artist Kelly Anna, famed for her bold and colourful prints. You will also find three more tables at Bank Street Park with modern bold prints designed by Art of Ping Pong.

It's free to play so come and enjoy a little friendly competition with family, friends or colleagues.

Our event steward will be onsite at both locations daily from 12-6pm to provide you with bats and balls to play. You are welcome to play outside of these times if you have your own equipment. Space will be limited and operate on a first come, first served basis.

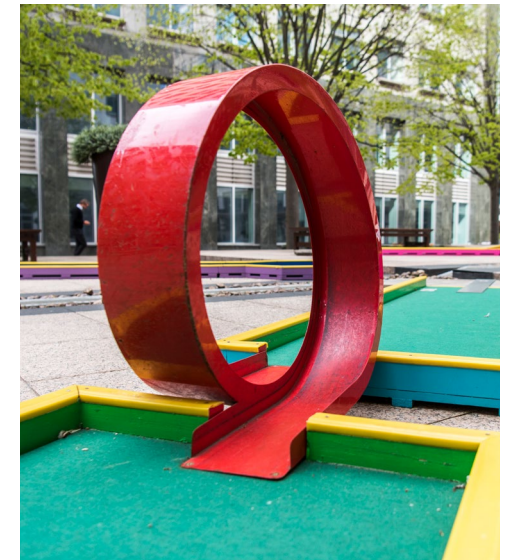

MINIGOLF

COLUMBUS COURTYARD
12 – 6PM
FREE

Canary Wharf's favourite minigolf course is here for all! With 9 holes to play through, including the classic 'loop-de-loop', the 'death drop' and many more trick shot opportunities, this is the perfect place to show off your mini golf skills to friends and family.

It's free to play, so come and see our event stewards who will be able to provide you with clubs and balls to play and, if you're lucky, some hints and tips on how to get a hole-in-one!

SUMMER SCREENS

DAILY UNTIL FRI 24 SEPTEMBER
CANADA SQUARE PARK & CABOT SQUARE
FROM 11AM
FREE

A whole host of sporting events are available to watch for all with our big screens on Canada Square Park and Cabot Square.

Visit us and catch the most exciting games, races, and championships all summer. With the Grandstand Bar open at the end of the park, it's time to sip your summer refreshments while watching screenings including the Italian Grand Prix, Ryder Cup and of course, the Paralympics.

You can even make a whole day of it with friends and family by grabbing some picnic items from Waitrose, indulge in some fine dining by popping into nearby restaurants such as The Ivy and Plateau.

The screens will be live all summer, showing a huge variety of live action sport plus highlights, films, entertainment, news, and cultural events. Visit our website for the weekly schedule.

THE LUNCH MARKET

THURSDAYS UNTIL 16 SEPTEMBER
MONTGOMERY SQUARE
12 – 3PM

Inject a little excitement into your Thursday lunchtimes. Head to Montgomery Square this summer to satisfy the most imaginative of cravings. In collaboration with Carnival, we're bringing you a plethora of new flavours and dishes to enjoy.

We will be welcoming different street food stalls each week but expect to indulge in authentic flavour and taste combinations from the likes of Italy, Thailand, Spain, Malaysia, the Philippines and more.

ON THE OTHER HAND

BROOKE BENINGTON

26 AUGUST – 12 NOVEMBER
THROUGHOUT CANARY WHARF
FREE

Our autumn Public Art exhibition On the Other Hand, taking visitors on a journey around the new developments of Canary Wharf. The curators, Brooke Benington, invited a group of contemporary sculptors who incorporate - or use as their starting point - found and man-made objects. Through these artworks, the artists explore ideas of human impact and urban development, the built and natural environment, responsibility and adaptiveness, improvisation, invention, and intervention. Looking for beauty in the every day. Giving new purpose and vitality to existing or everyday materials.

LOOKING UP

HELAINÉ BLUMENFELD

DAILY UNTIL TUE 30 NOVEMBER
FREE

Visit this stunning outdoor exhibition by renowned artist Helaine Blumenfeld.

As well as being her largest solo exhibition to date, this is also an unrivalled opportunity to view Blumenfeld's work in the context of hard interior and exterior architecture. Her fusion of natural forms, both human and foliate, spiced with abstraction, are seen through a range of diverse works dating from 1974 to 2019.

Blumenfeld works in a range of media - marble from many locations in Europe and the Middle East, terracotta, wood and bronze, all of which she pushes to the limits of risk, teetering on the edge of impossibility, particularly in her carving.
