With music, theatre, comedy, dance, poetry, workshops and family events, we hope you will find plenty to keep you entertained.

The majority of the events are free and unticketed, simply turn up and enjoy! Some events will be very busy so we recommend turning up early to avoid disappointment. For events with more limited capacity you may need a ticket so please check the individual event listing carefully or check our website for more details.

There will of course be plenty of food options to keep you fuelled throughout the event. Our Festival14 Street Eats market will run daily at Montgomery Square for a quick pit stop or book one of our many bars and restaurants for a more leisurely lunch or decadent dinner.
